The American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance (AAHPERD), is composed of five allied national associations. Founded in 1885, the purpose of the Alliance, as it was 100 years ago, is to improve the health and fitness of Americans by improving our country's educational programs.

Members stay informed through several publications, including the Journal of Physical Education, Recreation and Dance (JOPERD), the Journal of Health Education Strategies, Research Quarterly for Exercise and Sport and Update.
