

American Association of School Administrators—Members

10,943 Members by name

$125/M

AASA has over 11,000 members in school districts across the country and about 150 superintendents in Canada. Members include school superintendents, deputy and assistant superintendents, central-office staff, school administrators and board members for school districts varying in enrollment, from 300 to 25,000+ students.

School administrators are the CEOs of the education industry and they have decision-making authority over establishing the budget, authorizing and approving purchases and determining the need for products and services.

These professionals stay connected and informed through AASA's award-winning monthly magazine, The School Administrator, as well as through various conferences and online publications including The Leader's Edge and AASA Daily News.
