The College promotes the prevention and treatment of diseases of the chest through leadership, education, research, and communication. Its members are recognized practitioners who provide patient care in the areas of pulmonary, critical care, and sleep medicine.

Founded in 1935, the ACCP is an international, multidisciplinary organization with 17,000 members in more than 100 countries. Member physicians treat patients for asthma, COPD, ARDS, lung cancer, thrombosis, sleep disorders, and much more.

The ACCP is a leader in simulation education and the association's primary publication, CHEST, is the essential resource for original research in pulmonology, critical care, sleep medicine, cardiorespiratory interactions, thoracic surgery, transplantation, airways disease, and more.
