The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) is a nonprofit national association representing more than 3,000 individual members, as well as graduate and undergraduate programs of professional social work education. Founded in 1952, this partnership of educational and professional institutions, social welfare agencies, and private citizens is recognized by the council for Higher Education Accreditation as the sole accrediting agency for social work education in this country.

CSWE also promotes research and faculty development and advocates for social work education on a national scale.

Members of the CSWE are the senior faculty members including deans and MSW/BSW program directors.

The CSWE Masterfile includes active members as well as licensed social workers and other active practitioners working outside of academia; book buyers and librarians; exhibitors and other interested and supportive vendor partners.
