NABE® is an association of professionals who have an interest in business economics and who want to use the latest economic data and trends to enhance their ability to make sound business decisions. The Masterfile includes members, subscribers and prospects who represent more than 1,500 businesses and other organizations from around the world.

NABE's mission is to provide leadership in the use and understanding of economics.

Since its founding in 1959, NABE® has continued to attract the attention of the most influential and prestigious economic leaders in business. Past Presidents have included former Federal Reserve Governors, the Chairman of the Board of Governors for the Federal Reserve System, and other senior business leaders.

NABE members purchase or recommend books, training programs, software, data services, consulting services, professional advancement tools, online news services, and business publications, including newspapers and magazines. Meeting attendees are highly educated and are looking for the latest and best ideas. They are active consumers of items that will help improve their work and their careers. NABE members have a median base salary of $100,000 and 90 percent have advanced degrees.
